

About us:

The lovely mid 14th century stone manor house and courtyard sits within the footprint of the Roman fort, Olicana and was opened by patron, Alan Titchmarsh in April 2018. The Trust's vision is to create an ambitious heritage and creative quarter for the town.

Performance - 12noon - 13:00

Baccappella is a singing group (not a choir) which has evolved out of the Baccapipes Folk Club, Keighley. They sing carols, many from Derbyshire and Cornwall rather than the church carols most of us are familiar with.

Tickets - £6 and £2 for under 12.
Tickets available via Manor House box office and on-the-door (subject to availability).

Yule Riding

Sunday 22 December – 4:30pm to 5:30pm

Music for the Festive Season performed by The York Waits

The York Waits will be creating a wonderful festive atmosphere in the Manor House with songs, carols and celebratory music from across medieval and renaissance England and Europe, performed on loud and quiet wind consorts, bowed and plucked strings, and the rustic bagpipes and vielle.

Tickets £10 including mulled wine and mince pies available via www.manorhouse.org, from the box office at the Manor House when the house is open and on-the-door (subject to availability) Mulled wine and mince pies will be included after the performance and are included in the price of the ticket.
